MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests should be made via e-mail to the Sparks Communications Department at least 24 hours PRIOR to the game you wish to cover. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by Sparks Communications prior to arriving at STAPLES Center. Credentials may be picked up at the primary entrance adjacent to 11th street (between Figueroa and Georgia streets) beginning two hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferrable.

CHICK HEARN PRESS ROOM

The Chick Hearn Press Room is located near the primary media entrance adjacent to 11th street on the Event Level. The stairway from the primary entrance as well as the elevator leads directly to the press room.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with WNBA policy, the Sparks and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending 1 hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access shall be granted from 6:00–6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. game).

Locker rooms are re-opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS OR PERSONAL PHOTOS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters and stats are available in the press room two hours prior to game time. Statistics are distributed to the working media at the conclusion of each quarter as well as first half boxes and final boxes. Post-game notes and quotes are distributed following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

MEALS

Beverages and snacks will be available in the Chick Hearn Press Room before and during the game.

EARVIN "MAGIC" JOHNSON

OWNER

Earvin "Magic" Johnson has become the most powerful African-American businessman in the world. Having left the basketball court for the boardroom, today Mr. Johnson is Chairman and CEO of Magic Johnson Enterprises (MJE), which provides high-quality products and services that focus primarily on ethnically diverse and underserved urban communities through strategic alliances, investments, consulting and endorsements. The business mogul has successfully parlayed his skills and tenacity on the court into the business world, propelling his company to the status of #1 Brand in Urban America.

The conglomerate is comprised of multiple business entities and partnerships that include Yucaipa Johnson, a $500 million dollar private equity fund, ASPIRE, an African-American television network, SodexoMAGIC, a food service and facilities management company, Magic Johnson Bridgescape Academies, a high school drop-out prevention program, Clear Health Alliance, a healthcare provider with a specialty plan for HIV/AIDS patients, Magic Airport Holdings including Magic Johnson Sports, and Inner City Broadcasting Corporation. In 2012, as a member of Guggenheim Baseball Management (GBM), he became an owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, a Major League Baseball Franchise and in 2014 with some of the partners from GBM purchased the Los Angeles Sparks of the WNBA.

Mr. Johnson also serves as Chairman and Founder of the Magic Johnson Foundation, where his unwavering commitment to transform Urban America continues through HIV/AIDS Awareness & Prevention Programs, Community Empowerment Centers, and the Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program. The Foundation currently has 160 students on scholarship through their Taylor Michaels Scholarship Program, 18 empowerment centers that helps to bridge the digital divide, 5 HIV/AIDS Clinics assisting all patients regardless of their ability to pay and has tested over 40,000 individuals. Mr. Johnson is committed to bringing jobs and brand-named businesses to underserved communities. What he BELIEVES is reflected in what he DOES – and what he has and continues to do is to make a difference in the lives of urban America.

MARK R. WALTER

OWNER

Mr. Walter is the Chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Mr. Walter is also Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board and Executive Committee of Guggenheim Capital, LLC. Mr. Walter serves as a trustee/director of several organizations including the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Security Benefit Corporation and the EquiTrust Life holding company. He is also a controlling shareholder of Delaware Life Holdings. Mr. Walter grew up in Iowa and received a B.S. from Creighton University and a J.D. from Northwestern University.

STAN KASTEN

OWNER

Stan Kasten became president and CEO of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. For more than three decades, Kasten has been a highly-respected sports figure and has developed a reputation for creating winning sports franchises.

In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers.

Kasten's professional career is highlighted by the Braves' 1995 World Championship. During his tenure, the Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 in a row in the Braves' unprecedented run from 1991-2003.

He was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career, including NBA committees on marketing, player pensions and expansion and the NBA Board of Governors, MLB's owners negotiating committee and chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and the NHL's Board of Governors and its executive committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Throughout his impressive sports career, Kasten has relied on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks. He held the position until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten became the first -- and only -- NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87. With the help of future NBA Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins, Kasten was able to build Atlanta into a perennial playoff contender, posting four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89, and set franchise attendance records. In the 1990s, Kasten guided Atlanta to a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances, including three 50-win seasons.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB. As president of the Braves, Kasten helped assemble talented teams that consistently competed for a world championship. Led by manager Bobby Cox, the Braves teams of that era were built around a deep pitching staff that featured Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Steve Avery and John Smoltz. The cornerstone of the Braves' lineup was All-Star third baseman Chipper Jones. From 1991-2005, the Braves won 14 consecutive division titles, five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. He was also involved in the design and construction of Turner Field. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Kasten was elected to the LA84 Foundation's board of directors. LA84 is the legacy of the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and primary funder of youth athletics in Southern California. Four days later, on Jan. 28, he was named 2013 Sports Executive of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

TODD BOEHLY

OWNER

Todd Boehly is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Boehly is also president of Guggenheim Partners, a privately held, global financial services firm with more than $180 billion in assets under management, and member of the Firm's Executive and Management Committees.

Mr. Boehly joined Guggenheim in 2001 in order to build and manage the firm's credit investing activities. He also led several transactions for Guggenheim, its shareholders, and its clients such as the demutualization and recapitalization of Security Benefit, Guggenheim's acquisition and integration of Rydex, the media transaction for the Los Angeles Dodgers, the acquisition of Dick Clark Productions, and the creation of Guggenheim Media.

Mr. Boehly also serves as the Chairman of the Board for Security Benefit, an insurance company dedicated to individual clients and their wealth preservation, is on the Guggenheim Museum Board, is a trustee for the Brunswick School and is a Board Member for FAC-ES.

Before joining Guggenheim, Mr. Boehly worked at Whitney & Co. and Credit Suisse First Boston.

ROBERT L. (BOBBY) PATTON, JR.

OWNER

Bobby Patton is a partner of Guggenheim Baseball Management. He became part owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. Patton resides in Fort Worth, Texas, where he was born and raised. Patton principally operates oil and gas properties in Texas and Kansas and has additional investments in many other sectors, including ranching and insurance. Patton serves on the Board of Security Benefit Corporation and the Advisory Council of the University of Texas College of Liberal Arts. Patton received a B.B.A. from the University of Texas as well as a J.D. from St. Mary's University and LLM from Southern Methodist University.

CHRISTINE N. SIMMONS

PRESIDENT & COO

As president and chief operations officer, Christine N. Simmons oversees all aspects of the team's business operations including ticket sales, sponsorship sales, marketing, game operations, public relations, community relations and finance.

Simmons brings over a decade of leadership experience in creating strategic alliances, leading business development and driving corporate initiatives to the role, most recently serving as executive vice president of Magic Johnson Enterprises (MJE). In her role as executive vice president, she led the day-to-day operations of the Sparks throughout the team's first season under the ownership group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and Mark R. Walter.

Her background includes working with most of the Fortune 500 including major brands such as NBCUniversal and Disney, to create synergistic partnerships between those corporations and the business community nationally. Diversity and empowerment have always been true passions for Simmons as she led Supplier Diversity for NBCUniversal ensuring that diverse communities have opportunities to compete for business with the corporation.

Simmons graduated from UCLA and serves as Vice Chair of the Board of the UCLA Alumni Association. She has also served on the USC Supplier Diversity Advisory Council & the Advisory Committee of Better Futures for Thomazeau (a non-profit organization that creates jobs and lends aid to Haiti). Simmons has earned a number of honors, including Alumnus of the Year 2012 by the UCLA Black Alumni Association, as well as the Top 25 Women of Power Impacting Diversity by DiversityPlus magazine and the Who's Who in Black Los Angeles. She was also named Woman of the Year 2010 by the National Association of Professional Women.

Since being named president and chief operations officer, Simmons has instilled a mission to enrich the lives of youth in Los Angeles by supporting community programs that engage and motivate young people and families through sport, health and wellness, education and service initiatives, with a focus on inspiring women and young girls.

PENNY TOLER

EXECUTIVE VP & GM

The longest standing general manager in the WNBA, Penny Toler enters her 16th season leading the Sparks basketball operations. In 1997, Toler scored the first basket in the WNBA and in 2014, she became the only female in professional sports to have consecutively been a player, executive and head coach for the same team when she took over the reins as head coach midway through the season.

Toler stepped in as head coach with 12 games remaining in the 2014 regular season, guiding the Sparks to a 6 – 6 (.500) record and leading the Sparks to its record-setting 14th WNBA postseason appearance. Following the end of the 2014 season, she hung up her coaching board to return to her dual role as general manager/executive vice president heading into the 2015 season.

Toler has served as the general manager/executive vice president with the team since 2012, and as general manager/vice president since her retirement as a player in November 1999. Her skills at roster-building and keen sense of basketball operations are complemented by her years as a professional athlete, making her one of the most respected general managers in the game.

In her 15 seasons as general manager, Toler has guided the team to two WNBA titles (2001,2002), three conference championships (2001-2003) and to 14 postseason appearances (1999-06 and 2008-10, 2012-14). Named general manager just prior to the 2000 season, she compiled back-to-back WNBA Championship teams two seasons into her tenure, to give Los Angeles titles in 2001 and 2002. Among all professional men and women sports leagues, Toler became the fastest person to go from a player to general manager status to winning a championship in two years.

As a player, she scored the first basket in WNBA history on June 21, 1997 vs. the New York Liberty, and finished the inaugural season as the Sparks' second leading scorer with 13.1 points per game. The following season, she shot an impressive 41.7% from three-point range to rank second in the WNBA while finishing fifth in the league in assists at 4.8 per game. After three seasons, she hung up her basketball shoes following the 1999 season with WNBA career averages of 10.0 points, 2.8 rebounds and 4.0 assists in 88 games played. She retired from playing professional basketball with a combined 13 years overseas/WNBA experience.

In addition to the Sparks, she was also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of three gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team and the 2008 Olympic team. In an effort to advance the women's game, she was also a strong advocate in implementing the 24- second shot clock and turning the two, 20-minutes halves into four, 10-minute quarters.

In 2006, she again made history when the Sparks retired #11 in recognition of her playing and management career, becoming the first female athlete to have her jersey retired at STAPLES Center.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988) under Coach Joan Bonvicini, she earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Big West Player of the Year recognition in 1988 and 1989. She scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (sitting out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized with her induction into the LBSU Hall of Fame in 1995 and a jersey retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Forty-Niner Athletics Department.

Beyond the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure including: the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time she has focused on bringing the same type of community-oriented programs to the Sparks front office.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV and working with underprivileged youth. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the sports management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler currently resides in Los Angeles.

BRIAN AGLER

HEAD COACH

On January 5, 2015, Brian Agler joined the Los Angeles Sparks as the 12th head coach in franchise history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA.

Agler comes to the Sparks from Seattle, where he led the Storm to six consecutive playoff appearances (2008-2013) in seven years. He compiled a 136-102 (.571) record during his time in the Pacific Northwest, including his 212th career (WNBA and ABL) victory in 2012. The win on June 1 against the Tulsa Shock moved him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history. Agler won 78 games in the ABL and now has 184 WNBA wins (262 total).

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories. Under his direction, UMKC led the NCAA in scoring defense three consecutive seasons from 1990-93. In 1991, UMKC set an NCAA record, allowing 51.8 points per game.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

In 1980, Agler graduated with a degree in special education and physical education. He received his master's degree in education from Pittsburg State University (Pittsburg, Kansas) in 1985. Agler and his wife Robin, have one son, Bryce, and one daughter, Taylor.

CURT MILLER

ASSISTANT COACH

Curt Miller joined the Sparks with over 20 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level, the last 13 as a head coach.

Most recently the head women's basketball coach at Indiana University, Miller led the Hoosiers to a 32-32 record in two seasons (2012-2014). During the 2013-14 season, his final with Indiana, he led the team to a 21-13 record and a berth in the 2014 WNIT quarterfinals. IU's three post-season victories in the WNIT were the most ever in a single year in program history. With the wins, he is tied for the most national postseason career wins by any coach in school history.

Hired in 2012, he is credited with turning the Indiana program around from a 6-24 team upon taking the reins to nearly doubling the team's win total in each of his two seasons, compiling 11 wins his first season and 21 his second. During the 2013-14 season, his Lady Hoosiers set a program record with 14-consecutive wins to begin the season.

Prior to Indiana, he served an 11-year stint as head women's basketball coach at Bowling Green. As head coach of the Falcons, he led the team to eight consecutive Mid-American Conference titles and five NCAA tournament appearances. During his tenure at Bowling Green he compiled a 258-92 record and was named MAC Coach of the Year six times. His best season came in 2006 when he led the Falcons to a 31-4 mark, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance in the NCAA tournament.

In 13 seasons as a head coach, he compiled a 290-124 record with Indiana and Bowling Green. His coaching experience also includes serving as an assistant coach with Colorado State from 1998-2001.

AMBER STOCKS

ASSISTANT COACH

Amber Stocks joined the Los Angeles Sparks coaching staff on April 14, 2015, bringing with her 13 years of coaching experience both in the WNBA and at the collegiate level.

A veteran women's collegiate basketball coach and analyst, Stocks joins Los Angeles for her first coaching stint in the WNBA. Most recently she served the past year as a men's and women's basketball analyst for ESPN3 and Big East Digital Network. Prior to moving to the television side, she was the program director and head coach of the Tucson HEAT Basketball Association in Arizona (2009-2013).

Stocks served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Xavier University from 2002-2009. During her years with Xavier, she helped put together six 20-win seasons and six national postseason appearances, including four NCAA Tournaments. Prior to joining Xavier in 2002, Stocks spent two seasons as women's director of basketball operations for the University of Tennessee, working closely with then Lady Vols head coach Pat Summitt on the daily operations of the program. She was part of the staff that helped lead Tennessee to two regular season SEC Championships and advanced to the 2002 Final Four.

Stocks is also a certified strength and conditioning coach, overseeing strength and conditioning at the University of Notre Dame (1999-2000) and serving on the staff for the University of Cincinnati and Xavier (1998 – 1999) during her undergraduate careers.

She attended the University of Cincinnati where she was a four-time Bearcat Scholar honoree, three-time Defensive Player Award recipient and helped lead the Bearcats to a Conference USA Championship. She graduated from UC in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion and education.

BREAKING BARRIERS. BREAKING RECORDS.

As a women's professional basketball organization, we understand the importance of the empowerment of women within our communities. Everyday women in our community are serving as pioneers, business leaders and community activists, just to name a few. This is not only a part of our platform, but as an organization where over 50% of our employees are women, we stand for something that continues to inspire others.

Event Overview:

Our #WeAre campaign will highlight all the things that women are to this community. On 8.30.15 we plan to break the record for the highest attended game with over 22,000 fans in WNBA history played indoors.

Prior to our game, we will be hosting a festival outside of STAPLES Center. During this event we will feature musical performances, speakers and vendors that will focus on our theme:

#WeAreStrong #WeAreWomen #WeAreLA.

Honorees can be nominated by other members of the community to be featured in game. Nomination forms will be available on LASparks.com/WeAre from March 4 - April 30, 2015.

Outreach:

We have aligned with women based organizations in the community that represent:

- Health & Wellness
- Career Development
- Educational Opportunities
- Women Support Organization
- Women & Youth Services
- Business Development

SPARKS TIMELINE

HISTORY

June 21, 1997: The Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty tip-off the first WNBA game at the Great Western Forum in Los Angeles in front of a crowd of 14,284. Sparks Guard Penny Toler scores the league's first basket at 19:01.

August 24, 1997: Los Angeles finishes its first season 14-14 and in second place in the Western Conference. Lisa Leslie finishes the season as the league leader in rebounds per game (9.5), while Haixia Zheng is a WNBA Peak Performer for her league-leading .618 field goal percentage. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

June 19, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie sets a WNBA record by pulling down 21 rebounds in the Sparks victory over the New York Liberty.

June 21, 1998: Sparks center Lisa Leslie notches her seventh straight double-double, setting a WNBA record.

August 19, 1998: The Sparks finish the season 12-18 in a year of individual improvement, as Lisa Leslie increases her scoring average from 15.9 to 19.6 and her rebounding rate from 9.5 to 10.2. Tamecka Dixon also sees a rise in her scoring from 11.9 to 16.2.

August 30, 1999: The Sparks complete a season of firsts, finishing with its first winning record and a franchise-best 20 wins. Los Angeles also wins its first playoff series, knocking off the Sacramento Monarchs before falling to the eventual champion Houston Comets in the Western Conference Finals.

August 20, 2000: The Sparks win a franchise-record 28 games, including two 12-game win streaks. After sweeping Phoenix in the first round of the playoffs, though, they fall once again in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual champion Houston Comets.

2000

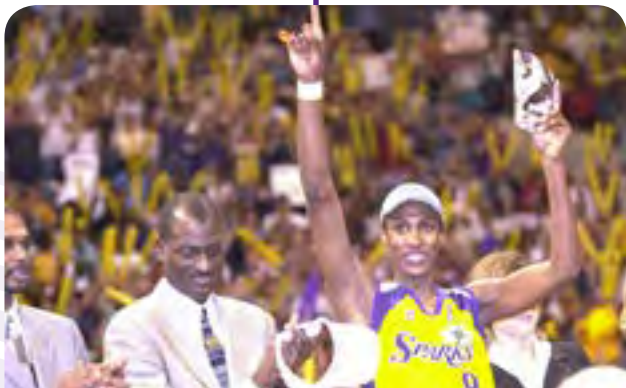

November 12, 1999: Penny Toler retires and becomes the first WNBA player in league history to go from player to front office executive, becoming General Manager of Player Personnel.

August 11, 2001: Sparks win a league-record and franchise-best 28 games and become the first WNBA team to go undefeated at home for an entire season, finishing 16-0 at STAPLES Center. The Sparks also top the league in points, defensive rebounds, total rebounds and assists per game.

August 27, 2001: Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to capture all three MVP awards (regular season, post-season and All-Star) in the same season, joining NBA greats Shaquille O'Neal, Michael Jordan and Willis Reed as the only professional basketball players to accomplish this feat. Sparks head coach Michael Cooper was also named WNBA Coach of the Year. Zheng also wins the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

September 1, 2001: Sparks claim their first WNBA Championship to give the city a sweep of professional basketball titles, sweeping the Eastern Conference champion Charlotte Sting in the Finals.

June 5, 2001: After four seasons and a 45-17 record at the Forum, the Sparks begin play at STAPLES Center, located in the heart of Downtown Los Angeles. Los Angeles beats Cleveland 58-50 amidst a record-breaking 9-0 start to the season.

July 11, 2002: Lisa Leslie is awarded the Best WNBA Player ESPY at the ESPY Awards, which honor the year's best athletic performances.

July 22, 2002: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to record 3,000 career points during the Sparks 92-84 victory over the Orlando Miracle at STAPLES Center. Leslie also records 24 points and 21 rebounds, tying the league record she set on June 19, 1998.

August 25, 2003: Sparks Guard Nikki Teasley finishes the year averaging 11.5 points, 6.3 assists, and 5.1 rebounds, becoming the first player in WNBA history to average more than 10 points, five assists, and five rebounds in a season.

August 29, 2002: Sparks rookie guard Nikki Teasley nails the game-winning shot in the waning seconds of Game 2 of the WNBA Finals to help the Sparks become the second team in WNBA history to repeat as champions, defeating the New York Liberty. Los Angeles runs through the postseason with a perfect 6-0 record as the first of just three teams to do so in league history (Seattle '10, Minnesota '13) and finish its back-to-back championship run with a 12-1 playoff record.

Sparks center Lisa Leslie earns Finals MVP honors for the second straight year.

After retiring in November 1999 to serve as the Sparks General Manager, Penny Toler becomes the fastest player-turned-manager in any men's or women's league to assemble a championship team (two years).

July 12, 2003: Sparks guard Nikki Teasley earns All-Star MVP honors with 10 points, six assists, six rebounds and five steals in the West's 84-75 victory in New York.

July 16, 2003: Lisa Leslie once again captures the "Best WNBA Player" ESPY, becoming the second two-time winner in the category.

July 30, 2002: Sparks Center Lisa Leslie becomes the first WNBA player to dunk in a game when she throws down a one-handed breakaway slam with 4:44 remaining in the first half of Los Angeles' 82-73 loss to the Miami Sol at STAPLES Center.

September 16, 2003: The Sparks win the Western Conference Championship and reach the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive year despite an injury-riddled season. The deciding Game 3 versus the Detroit Shock at The Palace of Auburn Hills proved to be a historic event as it was played before the largest crowd in WNBA history--22,076. The Shock's victory was sealed by Deanna Nolan's three-point basket with 53 seconds remaining and perfect free-throw shooting down the stretch.

July 29, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie scores her 4,000th career point, becoming the first WNBA player to reach the milestone.

September 10, 2004: Sparks center Lisa Leslie records the WNBA's third triple-double, tying Margo Dydek's record for blocked shots in the process as her 29 points, 15 rebounds and 10 blocked shots leads the Sparks to an 81-63 victory over the Detroit Shock.

September 28, 2004: The Sparks continue their impressive streak of playoff appearances by making it to postseason play for the sixth straight year with a 25-9 regular season record. The run of Western Conference Championships ends, however, with a first-round loss to the Sacramento Monarchs.

October 9, 2004: Lisa Leslie captures the 2004 WNBA MVP Award, leading the league in rebounds per game and finishing third in scoring. Leslie and teammate Nikki Teasley each receive All-WNBA recognition.

March 25, 2005: Sparks trade forward DeLisha Milton-Jones to the Washington Mystics for Chamique Holdsclaw.

Holdsclaw leads the Sparks in points, free throws made and consistently ranks in the top three in the league for points, minutes and field goals for the season top the league in points, defensive rebounds, total rebounds and assists per game.

July 9, 2005: Sparks veteran Lisa Leslie continues to impress fans in Los Angeles with her 15.2 points per game and 71 total blocked shots. A 2005 All-Star, Leslie makes history as the first player to dunk in a WNBA All-Star game.

September 2, 2005: With 13 wins and 16 losses under head coach Henry Bibby, assistant coach Joe "Jellybean" Bryant takes over for the final five games (4-1), allowing the team to finish squarely at .500 (17-17). With a perfectly split record, the Sparks catch a glimpse of the postseason but their tireless efforts are outmatched by the Monarchs for the second straight year.

June 14, 2006: Lisa Leslie is named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team, a group of the league's 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years.

June 26, 2006: Lisa Leslie becomes the first player in WNBA history to score 5,000 points.

July 5, 2006: In a historic presentation, Penny Toler's decade of involvement with the Sparks as an exceptional player and dedicated General Manager are recognized when her No. 11 jersey is retired during a Sparks game, marking the first female jersey to be retired at STAPLES Center.

July 7, 2006: Leslie's illustrious career is honored in an on-court celebration in which then-team president Johnny Buss dedicates the court to the record-breaking center, renaming it "Lisa Leslie Court".

August 26, 2006: With Coach Bryant at the helm, the 2006 Sparks boast a 25-9 regular season record and come back to beat the Seattle Storm after falling behind 1-0 in the Western Conference Semifinals. The Sparks conclude the 2006 season when they are defeated at the Honda Center by the Sacramento Monarchs, who go on to win the WNBA title.

September 3, 2006: Leslie is named WNBA Most Valuable Player for the third time. Over the course of the season, she earns four Player of the Week awards, weeks: 5/30, 6/19, 6/26 and 7/17.

December 7, 2006: WNBA approves the sale of the Los Angeles Sparks from the Lakers to Katherine Goodman and Carla Christofferson. Sparks season ticket holders themselves, Christofferson and Goodman focus on connecting fans through fun and engaging experiences at STAPLES Center. The Sparks become one of six WNBA teams to be owned and operated independently of NBA teams.

December 10, 2006: Lisa Leslie announces that she will take 2007 off to have her first child, Lauren.

May 22, 2007: Former Sparks coach and two-time WNBA Champion Michael Cooper rejoins the Sparks organization as head coach and leads the team to a season-opening victory over the Chicago Sky, 81-64.

June 12, 2007: Star forward Chamique Holdsclaw announces her abrupt retirement from the WNBA just five games into the season. Holdsclaw finishes her Sparks career with averages of 16.1 points and 6.4 rebounds over 63 games.

July 15, 2007: Lisa Leslie wins her third "Best WNBA Player" ESPY, becoming the second three-time winner in the category.

August 19, 2007: Sparks finish 2007 at a franchise-worst 10-24 and miss the playoffs for the first time in nine years.

Sidney Spencer leads the Sparks in total points (327) and WNBA rookies in free-throw percentage (.881) and double-doubles (two) and is a Rookie of the Year finalist.

October 23, 2007: Sparks win the top pick in the 2008 WNBA Draft at the annual WNBA Draft Lottery.

April 9, 2008: The Los Angeles Sparks select College Player of the Year and two-time defending NCAA Champion Candace Parker from Tennessee as the No. 1 draft pick in the 2008 WNBA Draft.

April 22, 2008: All-Star forward DeLisha Milton-Jones rejoins the Sparks in a trade with the Washington Mystics.

May 17, 2008: Candace Parker has a near triple-double in her WNBA debut at Phoenix with 34 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists.

June 22, 2008: Candace Parker records the league's second dunk in history with a slam over Indiana in the final seconds of the game.

August 28, 2008: Lisa Leslie records 17 blocked shots in three games from 8/30-9/1 with eight apiece coming against the Monarchs and the Lynx.

September 19, 2008: The Sparks make their ninth playoff appearance and defeat the Seattle Storm in the first round before losing to San Antonio in the Western Conference Finals.

Lisa Leslie is named the WNBA's Defensive Player of the Year after recording 97 blocks and 49 steals.

June 24, 2008: Candace Parker records the leagues third dunk and first in back-to-back games with a slam over the Seattle Storm.

August 1, 2008: The Sparks send Lisa Leslie, DeLisha Milton-Jones and Candace Parker to Beijing to compete in the 2008 Olympic Games.

August 23, 2008: The United States wins gold as Lisa Leslie captures her fourth gold medal in a row and improves her Olympic record to 32-0. Milton-Jones gets her second gold and Parker gets her first.

September 28, 2008: After defeating the Seattle Storm 2-1 in the first round playoff series, Los Angeles returns to the Western Conference Finals, where they come 1.3 seconds from returning to the WNBA Finals before a San Antonio Silver Stars game-winning basket. San Antonio also captures Game 3, ending the Sparks season.

October 1, 2008: Candace Parker and Lisa Leslie are named First Team All-WNBA. Parker paces the team in scoring (18.5 per game) and rebounds (9.5 per game), Leslie chips in 15.5 points per game. DeLisha Milton-Jones is also solid, averaging 13.9 points and 6.3 rebounds per game.

October 3, 2008: Candace Parker becomes the first player in WNBA history to be named Rookie of the Year and WNBA MVP in the same year.

February 4, 2009: Lisa Leslie announces the upcoming WNBA season will be her final one.

April 9, 2009: The Sparks finish assembling a batch of new acquisitions that include Tina Thompson, Betty Lennox, Los Angeles native Noelle Quinn and a draft class headlined by first-rounder Lindsay Wisdom-Hylton.

June 5, 2009: The Los Angeles Sparks reach an agreement with the Farmers Insurance Group of Companies to become the second team to secure a marquee partnership and wear branded jerseys. The Farmers Insurance Group of Companies name and logo appear on player jerseys.

June 26, 2009: Forward Candace Parker is nominated in the "Best WNBA Player" category for ESPN's annual ESPY Awards. Parker previously won ESPYs in 2008 for "Best Female Athlete" and "Best Female College Athlete," and in 2009 for "Best WNBA Player."

September 26, 2009: Lisa Leslie tallies 22 points and nine rebounds in the final game of her WNBA career as the Los Angeles Sparks are defeated by the Phoenix Mercury in the Western Conference Finals. Leslie retires as the all-time WNBA leader in points (6,263) and rebounds (3,307).

June 13, 2010: Star forward Candace Parker, off to a torrid start averaging a double-double has her season derailed by a separated shoulder after just 10 games.

July 24, 2010: Marie Ferdinand-Harris hits the 750-rebound and 300-steal milestone in her WNBA career after grabbing three rebounds and one steal in the Sparks win over the Sun.

August 4, 2010: Ticha Penicheiro sets a franchise record of 15 assists in a game against Chicago.

August 8, 2010: With 5:01 left in the third quarter against San Antonio, forward Tina Thompson hits a 16-foot jump shot and becomes the all-time leading scorer in WNBA history, surpassing former teammate Lisa Leslie and her previous record of 6,263 points.

August 8, 2010: DeLisha Milton-Jones hits her 700 career assist milestone after recording three assists in the Sparks loss to San Antonio. Milton-Jones also records her 500th career steal this season.

August 10, 2010: "Lisa Leslie Day" is proclaimed as the Sparks family proudly honors Lisa Leslie, retiring her No. 9 jersey which now hangs in the rafters at STAPLES Center.

August 20, 2010: The Sparks 98-91 victory over the Minnesota Lynx clinches a playoff spot for Los Angeles. The Sparks make the playoffs for the third consecutive year and the 11th time in franchise history.

August 9-22, 2010: Tina Thompson wins back-to-back Player of the Week honors.

February 2, 2011: After seven seasons in Indiana, Harbor City, Calif. native and USC alum Ebony Hoffman returns to Southern California, as the power forward signs as a free agent with the Sparks.

February 17, 2011: Farmers Insurance renews and expands its marketing partnership with the Sparks, becoming the first presenting sponsor in team history.

June 3, 2011: The Sparks open its 15th season as one of the three remaining original franchises with an 82-74 win at STAPLES Center over the eventual WNBA champion Minnesota Lynx, rallying from 11 points down in the third quarter in front of a season-high crowd of 13,589.

June 21, 2011: In the WNBA's 15th Anniversary Game between the Sparks and New York Liberty, played 15 years to the day of the league's inaugural game between the same two teams, Los Angeles outlasts its longtime rivals 96-91 at STAPLES Center and improves to 4-1. The halftime ceremony features a roundtable discussion with Lisa Leslie and inaugural Liberty player Rebecca Lobo.

August 12, 2011: Jantel Lavender scores 25 points and grabs 10 rebounds off the bench in the Sparks 93-90 victory over Phoenix, the highest totals by a Los Angeles rookie since Candace Parker in 2008.

August 24, 2011: Candace Parker is named WNBA Western Conference Player of the Week after averaging 18.5 points and 8.5 rebounds in her first two games back from an extended injury absence.

August 26, 2011: In a surprise halftime announcement, Lisa Leslie is introduced to the STAPLES Center crowd by Sparks Chairperson Paula Madison as the newest member of the Sparks ownership group, becoming the first former player to invest in a league team.

September 10, 2011: Los Angeles remain in playoff contention despite a knee injury to Candace Parker that keeps the team's leading scorer sidelined for half of the season. The Sparks postseason pursuit comes up short.

November 10, 2011: The Sparks win the annual WNBA Draft Lottery despite holding the lowest odds.

January 15, 2012: The Sparks hire Carol Ross as the 10th head coach in team history.

April 16, 2012: Toler chooses Stanford forward Nneka Ogumike as the No. 1 selection in the 2012 WNBA Draft.

Ogumike joins new acquisitions Alana Beard, Nicky Anosike, Marissa Coleman, Ashley Shields and Sharnee' Zoll.

July 23, 2011: Former Sparks Lisa Leslie and Teresa Weatherspoon, along with current players Tina Thompson and Ticha Penicheiro, are named as four of the Top 15 WNBA Players of All Time in a halftime ceremony during the All-Star Game in San Antonio.

September 20, 2012: The Sparks finish the regular season with the league's third-best record (24-10) and earn the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference playoffs, securing Los Angeles a return to the WNBA Playoffs after missing the 2011 postseason.

October 7, 2012: After sweeping the San Antonio Silver Stars in the first round of the playoffs, the Sparks are swept by the Minnesota Lynx in the Western Conference Finals.

October 8, 2012: Head coach Carol Ross, Nneka Ogumike and Kristi Toliver earn prestigious league awards. Ross is named the WNBA's Coach of the Year for returning the Sparks to the playoffs and orchestrating the second largest turnaround (nine games) in franchise history, Ogumike earns the coveted honor as the WNBA Rookie of the Year and Toliver is named the league's Most Improved Player. Additionally, Candace Parker is named First Team All-WNBA, while Toliver makes the Second Team.

July 27, 2013: Receiving the second most fan votes, Candace Parker is named a starter in the 2013 WNBA All-Star game at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. Kristi Toliver and Nneka Ogumike are selected as reserves by WNBA coaches, making it a first WNBA All-Star game appearance for each player of the Sparks trio. Parker was named All-Star Game MVP after a performance that includes the All-Star Game points record with 23 to go along with 11 rebounds.

September 19, 2013: Candace Parker is named WNBA MVP, becoming just the fifth player in league history to earn the award multiple times.

September 23, 2013: After finishing the regular season with a record of 24-10--the second best record in the league--the Sparks set the WNBA record for most playoff appearances with its 13th before falling to the Phoenix Mercury in the Western Conference Semifinals.

February 5, 2014: Unanimous approval is reached as the Los Angeles Sparks are purchased by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and Mark R. Walter.

April 2, 2014: The Sparks wrap up a week of acquisitions that include a trade for forward/center Sandrine Gruda and free agent signings of guard/forward Armintie Herrington and guard Candice Wiggins.

June 1, 2014: Armintie Herrington records a franchise-record and career-high seven steals in the Sparks triple overtime loss to the Washington Mystics at the Verizon Center. Los Angeles totals a franchise record 22 steals in the contest.

June 6, 2014: In a 102-88 win at Chicago, the team sets several franchise records, including: 61 first-half points, 31 assists and 43 field goals made.

June 30, 2014: Nneka Ogumike earns Western Conference Player of the Week honors for the week of June 24 - 29.

July 8, 2014: Candace Parker earns the third most votes among WNBA players en route to being named a starter for the 2014 Boost WNBA All-Star Game. The selection is the third of her career. Nneka Ogumike is later named a reserve to garner her second All-Star appearance in her three-year career.

July 20, 2014: Sparks executive vice president and general manager Penny Toler is named the team's head coach for the remainder of the season, taking the reins as the 11th head coach in Sparks history. Toler took over for Carol Ross, who was relieved of her coaching duties mid-season, and became the only female to serve as GM/EVP/head coach in WNBA history. Toler finishes the season with a 6-6 (.500) record.

August 12, 2014: With a win over the #2 seeded Minnesota Lynx, Los Angeles clinches its 14th playoff berth in franchise history -- marking a league record for most postseason appearances.

August 18, 2014: Kristi Toliver earns Western Conference Player of the Week honors for the week of August 11 -17.

January 5, 2015: Brian Agler, women's professional basketball's all-time winningest coach, is named the 12th head coach in franchise history.

January 13, 2015: Christine Simmons is named the team's president and chief operating officer after most recently serving as executive vice president of Magic Johnson Enterprises.

February 23, 2015: Over the course of two weeks, the team signs five players, including four international free agents: Marianna Tolo (Australia), WNBA veteran Erin Phillips (Australia), Ana Dabovic (Serbia) and Elina Babkina (Latvia). 2014 second-round pick, Jennifer Hamson, is also signed.

In the process, Augustus also tied the Mercury's Diana Taurasi as the fastest player in WNBA history to reach 3,000 (151 games).

August 22, 2011: The WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that made Boost Mobile the first league-wide marquee partner of the WNBA. As part of the deal, the Boost Mobile brand logo was subsequently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 of the WNBA's 12 teams. It marked the first time the WNBA had a league partner with jersey branding for multiple teams throughout the season other than adidas, the league's official outfitter.

October 2, 2011: Despite falling to the host Minnesota Lynx in Game 1 of the WNBA Finals, Atlanta Dream forward Angel McCoughtry set Finals records for points in a quarter (19 in the third), points in a half (27 in the second), and consecutive points (14 from late in the first half into the third quarter).

October 5, 2011: The Atlanta Dream's Angel McCoughtry surpasses the WNBA Finals record (set by her in 2010) for most points in a single game with 38 in a loss to the host Minnesota Lynx.

October 7, 2011: In a celebration of its 15th season, the WNBA and partner Boost Mobile unveiled the Top 15 Moments in league history as voted by fans. The top moment was Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.

October 7, 2011: The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game 2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.

April 16, 2012: The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogwumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) were the top five picks.

The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.

Oct. 21, 2012: Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, six rebounds, and two steals during the Finals.

Dec. 13, 2012: Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013: The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013: On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013: For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Skylar Diggins of Notre Dame. The Phoenix Mercury selected Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then took Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claimed Diggins third.

May 27, 2013: While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV double-header on ESPN2 that introduced the "3 to See" -- Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins -- to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.

May 27, 2013: Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.

June 8, 2013: The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement "Ref Cam" as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point-of-view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson. "Ref Cam" allowed viewers to virtually be on the court when Indiana hosted Phoenix during a live ABC broadcast.

July 6, 2013: Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.

July 27, 2013: The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.

August 18, 2013: Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013: Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013: Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

September 22, 2013: Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013: After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season

MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, six rebounds, and over two assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013: The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2014: The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2014: The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton, and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2014: The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.
